

2018 BUNGE SCORECARD

WHAT IS YOUR ROLE AS A CITIZEN?

Since Members of Parliament work by the power of the citizens, Kenyans have a responsibility to ensure MPs fulfill their duty. Kenyans can:

1. Ask for information from MPs;
2. Contribute your experience, ideas and views during the law making and budget making processes;
3. Using your right to recall, you can initiate a process to fire your Member of Parliament for non-performance or failing to obey the Constitution;
4. Go to court and challenge decisions made in Parliament, if such decisions are not aligned to the Constitution;
5. Petition Parliament to revise, remove or develop any law for the best interest of your community;
6. Take an interest in how your Member of Parliament is spending the National Government Constituencies Development Fund and the National Government Affirmative Action Development Fund. You may gather evidence and report your concerns of misuse of your taxes to the Auditor General or the Ethics and Anticorruption Commission.

WHAT'S THE JOB OF AN MP?

The Constitution provides the following to be the job of your Member of Parliament

1. Represent you and fellow Kenyans, including special groups, in the constituencies
2. Discuss issues that concern you;
3. Make national laws;
4. Discuss about tax payers money and decide how much the national and county government, including state organs will get;
5. Keenly monitor the President and Deputy President and other state officials and ensure that they respect and implement the Constitution;
6. Start a process of removing the President, Deputy President and other state organs from office if they fail to respect the Constitution;
7. Checks on how the Cabinet and Ministries spend money and ensure our money is spent properly.

SCORECARD DISCLAIMER

- Mzalendo acknowledges participation in Parliament is just one of several parameters that can be used to judge performance
- The report recognises the official role played by the leaders of Majority and Minority, whips as well as members of the Speaker is Panel and does not include their data in the report.
- This data uses a simple quantitative metric – the total number of times the Member of Parliament spoke, as indicated by the Hansard.
- We acknowledge that Kibra MP, Ken Okoth has been absent due to medical reasons thus affecting his appearances on the Hansard. His contribution in development in his county through the NG-CDF fund does not go unnoticed.
